

Te Huarahi - who we are and how to get involved

Te Huarahi Māori Motuhake is responsible for supporting kaiako Māori members on aspects of professional, cultural and broader education matters.

If you are not on the PPTA Māori electoral roll and would like to be included within our kaupapa Māori structures – nau mai, haere mai!

Information on the Te Huarahi Maori Motuhake and Te Reo A Rohe structure can be found on the 'About PPTA' section of the PPTA website.

For further information email tbowkett@ppta.org.nz

Latest news

Kia ora ki ngā kaihaka o Te Matatini! Heartfelt congratulations to our many talented kaiako Māori members who performed in the recent national competitions. Special mention to Tipene Waihi and Jojo Rangihaeata, strong rohe advocates for kaiako Māori and seasoned performers in Whangara Mai Tawhiti, the overall champions of Te Matatini 2017 and the new winners of the prestigious Duncan MacIntyre Trophy.

Ngā Manu Kōrero Nationals 2017

Ngā Manu Kōrero Nationals 2017 will be hosted by Taranaki / Whanganui. The pohiri will take place at Ōwae Marae, Waitara on Wednesday 20 September at 1pm. The speech competitions will be held at the TSB Stadium, Mason Drive, New Plymouth, starting with the senior sections on Thursday 21 September. The junior speeches and prizegiving will be on Friday 22 September.

Ngā Manu Kōrero 2017 national topics and booklet

Nātional Māori Teachers' Conference

The National Māori Teachers' Conference theme, Transformation in Māori Education, promises to be an intense and rich line-up of exceptional speakers and presenters. The hui dates have been condensed to two days, from Sunday 9 – Monday 10 July. Delegates will travel home Tuesday 11 July.

Further information will be available on the PPTA website before the end of Term one.

Te Huarahi online

The Tangata Whenua community page community page of the PPTA website has information about the Te Huarahi structure, the Ngā Manu Kōrero National Secondary School Speech Contests and the National Kapa Haka secondary school competitions, which are both supported by PPTA, and the Māori Teachers' Conference. Keep an eye on it for the latest updates.

Post Primary Teachers' Association
Level 5, 60 Willis Street
Wellington